

Announcement of Sainampeung

Under the Royal Patronage of Princess Petcharat Rajsuda Sirisopaphannawadee School

No Gift Policy in Performing Official Duties

Fiscal Year ๒๐๒๕

Sainampeung School under the Royal Patronage recognizes the importance of cultivating an organizational culture, core values, and appropriate practices for personnel regarding the giving or receiving of gifts, souvenirs, or any other benefits in relation to the performance of official duties. This is to prevent actions that may influence the exercise of authority for personal or others' gain, in line with government policy under the national reform plan on the prevention and suppression of corruption and misconduct.

To express its commitment to anti-corruption in all forms and to promote integrity, ethics, and honesty in public service ensuring transparency in accordance with the principles of good governance the school hereby declares that all public officials shall not receive any form of gifts or souvenirs resulting from their official duties, whether before or after such duties, which may lead to corruption or misconduct. Executives and supervisors at all levels must lead by example and strictly oversee that personnel under their supervision comply with anti-corruption and misconduct prevention measures.

This announcement is made for strict compliance.
